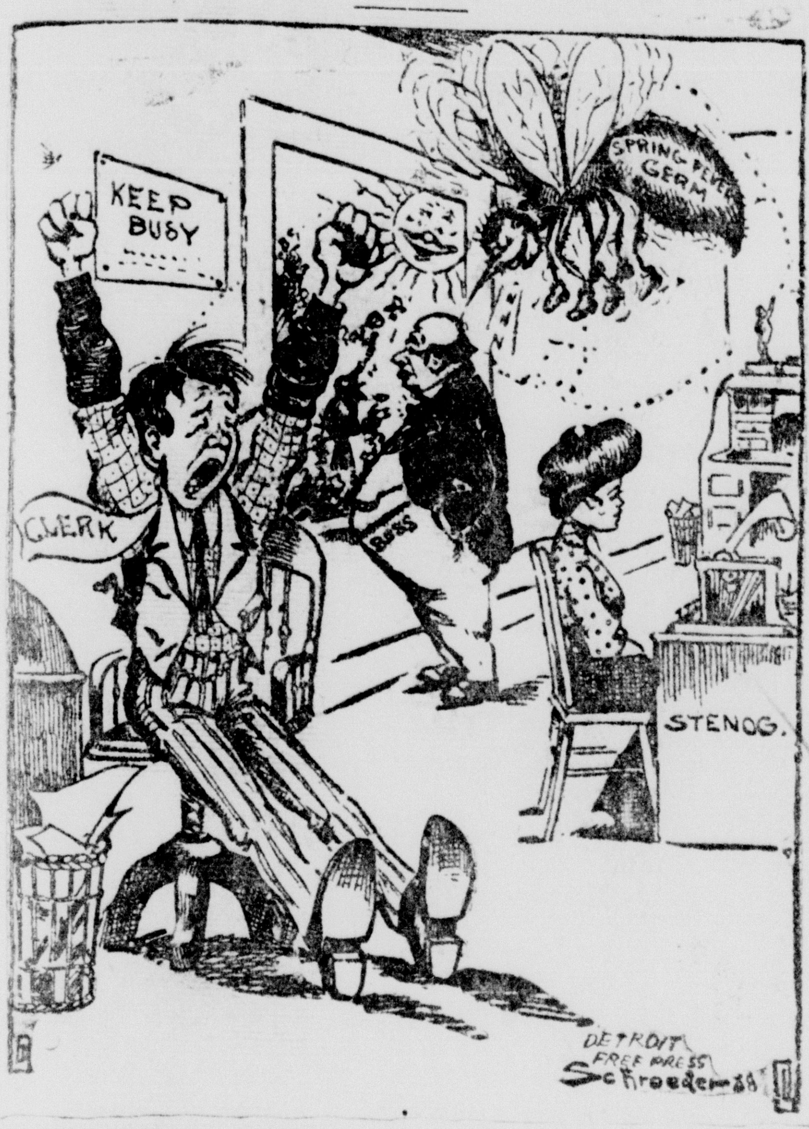
HAVE YOU BEEN STUNG BY THE BUG YET?



Death Trap Almost Claimed Another

Had the east-bound Cleveland-Pittsburg flyer passed the W. Main street crossing a moment sooner Wednesday evening, Salem might have today mourned the loss of one of her well-known young ladies and that inevitable death trap would have added one more to its already long list of victims. So close was the call that witnesses held their breath in suspense.

The excitement was caused about 6:30 o'clock, when Miss Hallie Ressler had a narrow escape from being run down by the flyer while attempting to cross the tracks at the W. Main street crossing with a horse and buggy. Several other rigs, driving in both directions, were crossing at about the same time, and considerable confusion resulted.

Watchman Anthony Horner permitted several to pass before the train drew near, but as Miss Ressler drove up he says he motioned for her to stop, which he thought she did. As he turned away, however, he saw the horse step onto the tracks. He attempted to stop the horse, but missed it and was struck by the buggy, at the same time jumping from in front of the train. The engineer of the train evidently saw there might be a calamity and immediately applied the emergency brakes. Miss Ressler crossed safely but experienced a hair-breadth escape as the train dashed behind her.

Several persons witnessed the scene and none expected to see Miss Ressler get safely across the tracks. She returned to the scene and said that she did not known she was disobeying the orders of the watchman, but thought she was safe in crossing at the time.

That such a narrow escape from serious and probably fatal injury should occur so soon after the accident at the Depot crossing has roused indignation that steps are not taken by the city and the Pennsylvania Co. to better protect Salem's grade crossings. Council, at a recent meeting of the committee of the whole, informally discussed grade crossings, but no definite step was taken, but the two recent incidents will probably cause some action to be taken.

MANY WANT TO KNOW ABOUT NEW GAS LAW

Columbus, Jun 4.—Printed copies of the laws of the recent legislative session are being received slowly by the secretary of state, and it will be several weeks yet before all will be in. Many requests have been made for the law compelling gas companies to pay patrons 6 per cent on deposits exacted to secure payment of bills. This law was received Wednesday. It provides that no person, firm or corporation furnishing gas, water or electricity has the right to demand any cash deposit from any property owner who is responsible and able to give a reasonably safe guaranty to secure the payment of bills for 50 days' supply, and that where this security is not furnished, a deposit not exceeding the amount of the monthly average of the patron's bills, plus 30 per cent, may be required, but on this 6 per cent interest shall be paid the consumer. The penalty for failure to abide by the provisions of this act is forfeiture of the right to collect on any bill.

AUDITORS APPRAISE THE Y. & S. RAILROAD

Lisbon, June 4.—Auditor C. H. Cobourn of this county and Auditor W. B. Jones of Mahoning county, with S. J. Dill, vice president and general manager of the Y. & S. railroad, and David Todd, secretary and treasurer of the same road, met in Youngstown yesterday and appraised the Y. & S. railroad as follows: Rolling stock, $1,000 per mile; structures and improvements, $4,000; power house and money credits, $190 per mile; main track and sidings, $8,500 per mile. Auditor Cobourn was made secretary of the meeting.

SEBRING DAMAGED BY A $10,000 FIRE

Sebring, June 4.—Fire that visited the business district of Sebring Wednesday morning resulted in a total loss of $10,000. The fire was discovered at the rear of a building owned by F. A. Sebring on Fifteenth street, and occupied as a club room, by the Bell Telephone Co., the Jones barber shop, the family of George Hartley and the Robinson Insurance Co. It is supposed the fire originated from spontaneous combustion in a pile of rubbish under an outside stairway.

The firement responded quickly to the alarm, but no water was available until the pumps were started in the pump house at the Oliver China works. This delay of perhaps 15 minutes gave the fire a good start and the rear of both buildings was burned from basement to roof. By heroic work of the firemen the fire was extinguished before complete destruction resulted. The total loss is placed at $10,000, divided as follows: Buckeye drug store, on stock, $3,000; M. E. Mowrey, furniture and household goods, $1,000; George Hartley, $700; F. A. Sebring, on buildings, $5,000; Bell Telephone Co., $200; Robinsons insurance agency, $200; William Jones, barber shop, $300; Joseph Hartley, furniture damaged by water, $200. All of the above losses are covered by insurance, except that of Geo. Hartley, who carried no insurance.

The fire was in the center of the business portion of the town, and had there been a wind blowing at the time it would have swept the greater part of the business portion of Sebring. Much of the damage resulted from the flood of water which was thrown into the burning buildings.

Humane Society to Meet.

The Humane society will hold its regular monthly meeting Friday night at 7:30 o'clock at the office of Dr. Hogan, president. Matters of importance will be discussed.

Grangers Before Footlights

Two comedies will furnish amusement at a special meeting of Salem Grange to be held Saturday evening at the grange hall on Franklin road. The first is a one-act play called "Won by a Wager." Seven members of the grange will take part in the performance. The second, a more elaborate comedy of three acts, is called "Jumbo Jum," in which eight of the grangers will take part. The plays have been in preparation for some time. Special music will also form a part of the program.

MANY MEMBERS IN NEW GRANGE

The Willow Grove Grange, comprising 67 charter members from the district west and southwest of Salem, completed its organization at the Willow Vale school house Wednesday evening, and made it start under auspices which promise one of the largest and most active granges in Columbiana county. For several weeks the work of organization has been carried on, and when the meeting came to an enthusiastic culmination Wednesday night, County Deputy H. A. Halverstadt stated that the grange was the largest he had ever instructed.

The new grange is composed of residents of the Willow Vale and Vernal Grove districts, and when the question of a name was discussed, it was decided to compromise and to call the new organization the Willow Grove Grange. For the present the meetings will be held at the Willow Vale school house, but it is proposed ultimately to erect a grange hall either in that vicinity or near the Vernal Grove school.

Before the election of officers, Deputy Halverstadt instructed the grange in secret work. The following officers were elected: Master, M. A. Whinnery; overseer, N. G. Burns; lecturer, Charles F. Fawcett; secretary, Mary Rogers; treasurer, Elmer Meyer; steward, Thomas Briggs; assistant steward, Milton Crawford; lady assistant steward, Harriet Burns; chaplain, Mason Beaumont; gatekeeper, Herbert Haifley; ceres, Mary C. Whinery; pomona, Mrs. E. K. Minser; flora, Olive Meyers. The officers were installed by the county deputy.

A constitution will be drawn up by a committee chosen for that purpose, and will be discussed at the next meeting, which will be held Thursday evening, June 11. The charter and paraphernalia have been sent for and the grange will begin its official existence under the state grange within two weeks.

A program consisting of music, recitations and papers will be given at the meeting next Thursday night.

Much enthusiasm exists among the members of the new organization, who confidently believe that it will become the strongest grange in the county. Within a short time the membership, it is expected, will reach the 100 mark. Many have signified their intention of joining as soon as they can secure demits from granges to which they already belong. The new organization fills a long-existing need, as there is no grange throughout the district which comprises its membership; and it will bring to the people of the entire region new educational and social advantages.

WILL RE-DEDICATE COLUMBIANA CHURCH

Columbiana, June 4.—Interesting services will be held at the Grace Reformed church next Sunday, at which time the church will be re-dedicated. Morning services will begin at 10:30. Scripture lesson will be read by Rev. L. J. Rohrbaugh of North Lima and prayer will be offered by Rev. Harvey S. Stoner of Massillon. Rev. Dr. J. H. Bomberger of Cleveland will preach the sermon, after which the dedication will take place.

Evening services will begin at 7 o'clock, when the sermon will be delivered by Rev. H. S. Stoner, and an address will be made by Rev. Dr. Bomberger. An organ recital will be given in the church on Saturday evening by Mrs. Charles Berry of Akron.

At the services of the church last Sunday, the congregation voted to extend a call to the Rev. Harry Rohrbaugh of New Berlin, to become pastor of the local church. As yet he has not accepted the call.

SCHOOLS MAY CONSOLIDATE

Butler Township Seeks Graded School System

MEETING AT SCRABBLE

Consolidation and betterment of the public schools are questions that are again seriously occupying the minds of the residents of Butler township, and with a view of taking active steps in the solution of these questions, a meeting of householders and the board of education of the township will be held at the Scrabble school house on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Various methods of bettering the schools have been suggested, and it is likely that one of these methods will be decided upon at the meeting Saturday. Centralization has been talked of, but the township is generally regarded as being too large to allow effective centralization. Another plan is to consolidate the schools of the northern part of the township into graded and high school at or near Valley, and to organize a similar school at or near Winona, in the southern part of the township. This plan has many adherents.

The third plan, and the one which seems to meet with most favor, at least among a certain portion of the population, is for the establishment of a special district in the eastern and southeastern parts of the township. This district would include the Vernal Grove school, just west of Salem and near Burns's Corners, which is regarded as one of the best district schools in this township. A decree from the probate judge would be necessary for the establishment of this district. A graded and high school would be established on the Newgarden road about a half mile north of Winona. The southwestern part of Perry township would be included in the district.

This special district would have a spearate board of education, would be self-supporting and at the same time would be exempt from taxation to support the other schools of the township, as the rest of the township would be exempt from supporting the special district. Many residents outside of the district have feared they would be compelled to support two sets of schools; but this is not the case. The new district would be as distinct from the rest of the township as city schools are. This consolidation would require a free bus service to transport the children to and from school.

This plan, it is held, would not prevent the other schools in the township from consolidating into one or two graded schools, and as the meeting of Saturday is one of the whole township, it is likely that the whole school system will be discussed and plans devised for its betterment. Consolidation would, it is believed, provide far more efficient schools, as the school levy could be concentrated on one or two graded schools, instead of upon a dozen district ungraded schools. High schools in the country, it is held, would provide adequate facilities for all country children to receive more than a district school education. At the same time sufficient land would be purchased in connection with these schools to allow agricultural experimentation. The money which is now spent by townships in tuitions of pupils who have passed Patterson examinations and are thus entitled to attend a high school could be devoted to the township graded schools; and the country pupils would have the added advantage of attending a school organized for educating country children and better adapted to that end than are city schools.

Four Candidates Initiated.

The Mystic Circle held its regular weekly meeting Wednesday evening. Four candidates were initiated. Cards were the pastime, and a lunch was served.

WILL DIG COAL BY AID OF MACHINES

The mining machinery for the Salem mine has been received, and is being put in place. The foundation for the boilers is completed and they will be installed at once. Six Morgan-Gardner mining machines, one of the most modern and scientifically constructed mining contrivances, have arrived, and will be put in place within 20 days. They will be operated by electricity from the company's dynamo, and will have a capacity of 1,000 tons a day, when operated in two shifts of eight hours each.

As soon as the mine is operated to the full capacity of these machines a considerable addition to the number of miners will be made, and operators claim that the use of machines will increase the number of workmen instead of diminishing it, as has been feared by miners. The installation of machines will necessitate the establishment of a machine scale to take the place of the pick scale now in force.

21 BLIND PERSONS GRANTED LEGAL AID

WOMAN ALLEGES SHE WAS BEATEN BY TWO MEN

Lisbon, June 4.—Barbara Barth vs. W. W. Sloan and Thomas Jackson was the title of a damage suit which was filed in common pleas court yesterday afternoon. The petition of the plaintiff charges that on the 13th of June, 1905, the defendants beat and illtreated the plaintiff, and that she has been unwell since, and prays the court for damages. Carl Barth, the plaintiff's husband, has also filed a separate suit against the defendants for $1,000 damages, said to have been suffered by him through the illness of his wife and the care and medical attention she required. All the parties to the suit reside in St. Clair township.

L. P. Metzger went to Canton Wednesday evening, where he witnessed the conferring of the initiatory degree on a class of Canton Elks by Grand Exalted Ruler John K. Tener of Charleroi, Pa., and his degree team.

Work to Start Immediately On Y. & O. R. Extension to E. Liverpool

Supt. J. D. Deweese of the Youngstown & Ohio River Railway Co. announced Thursday morning that work would be started immediately on the four-mile extension of the road from the Glenn farm into East Liverpool, where the company's road will terminate. The work of grading will be done by the Cleveland Construction Co., which company completed this end of the road, and a force will be put on large enough to complete the work by August 15. From the Glenn farm the road will go by way of Jethro hollow to Jethro bridge, where the road will connect with the lines of the East Liverpool Traction and Light Co., over which the Y. & O. R. will operate into East Liverpool.

THE PAYMENTS ARE ILLEGAL

Bond Premiums Should Not Be Paid By City

REPORT OF CITY'S BOOKS

Examiner Finds Well-Kept Books, but a Few Irregularities—City Receives no Interest on Its Deposits—Ordinances Questioned.

That the payment by the city of premiums on bonds of city officials is illegal and that restitution may be compelled, is the assertion of the report of the state examiner, Frank A. Parmelee, as was stated in The News at the time Mr. Parmelee made the examination. The report was filed Wednesday and includes the result of an examination of all the official records of the city.

According to the report, the illegal payments are as follows: George McArtor, $2.50; Heaton & Sheehan, $57.50; John H. Chisholm, $22.50; Vernon & Ambler, $30.83; Carl C. Brian, $5.00; Trent & Mitchell, $10; total illegal payments, $128.33. These illegal payments were made between January, 1907, and the present time, and were for the premiums on bonds for councilmen, members of service and safety boards, engineer, street superintendent, firemen, policemen, city auditor, and other city officials. The bureau of supervision and inspection of public offices holds that "the public funds cannot be legally used in the payment of premiums on bonds of public officials from and after the date that the supreme court declared the Crafts law to be unconstitutional," except in the payment of bond premiums of sinking fund trustees.

Henceforth premiums on surety bonds must not be paid from the city treasury, while the question of the return of the money already illegally paid is left to the discreation of the city officials. When City Solicitor S. W. Ramsey called the attention of the councilmen to the illegality of these payments, they overruled his recommendation with a tacit agreement to continue the practice. The examiner's report now justifies the solicitor's objection.

The examination covered the period from December 20, 1906, to April 30, 1908, and embraced all items of receipts and expeditures in each municipal department. "No information was given your examiner," says Mr. Parmelee, "that called for the investigation of official matters other than was shown by the records," and he adds that the city officials promptly and cheerfully produced all records and information necessary to make the audit.

With a few exceptions the examiner found all the official records kept in a businesslike manner.

The total balance in the city treasury was found to be $25,713.79. The city is not acting under a depository law, and no interest is received by the city for the use of public funds. The examiner suggests that steps be taken toward establishing and designating a depository by advertising for bids, and in accordance with section 135, M. C., issuing a contract for the use of the city's funds.

The examiner commends the neatness with which the auditor's books are kept. The uniform system of accounts is followed in every detail.

During the period covered by the examination fines for the violation of the penal ordinances of the city amounted to $90.70, while the mayor's costs in the cases amounted to $159.30, police costs, $130.35, making a total of $380.35. In cases under the state statutes fines amounting to $180.50 were collected, with mayor's costs of $83.20, police costs of $64, making a total of $327.70. With the exception of $1, collected but not deposited, the mayor's accounts tally with his deposits in the city and county treasuries. License fees amounting to $81.75 were collected.

The total bonded indebtedness of the city, according to the records of the sinking fund commission, is $322,292.46, while certificates of indebtedness bring the total $2,500 higher. A criticism is made of the method of drawing warrants during the entire period covered. The statutes require

"A country that produces crops valued at nearly $7,500,000,000 is unlikely to suffer long from industrial stagnation." This was said recently by a British agent sent over to this country to note the industrial and financial tendencies. He continued: "The cloud of uncertainty which has been hanging over the country for so long and gradually growing more threatening is now passing away, and it may be said that the worst of the storm has now passed. There will in all probabality be mercantile disturbances for some months to come, but readjustment and recuperation are well under way, and unless labor troubles should retard the improvement or monopolies of capital interfere to keep prices at too high a level, it is expected that before many months have passed business will be on a safer and more normal basis."

It is declared to be the definite policy of the Pennsylvania railroad to abolish grade crossings wherever it can secure the co-operation of the local authorities. Would it not be a good idea for the Salem city council to make a test of this avowed policy?

That trip of the Mudlark and occupants in behalf of good roads ought to prove effective. The now famous car has poked her nose into some of the worst thoroughfares in the country, and her driver knows exceedingly well the value of good roads.

About the most amusing paragraph recently is one in the Springfield Republican seriously intimating that the Oklahoma and Texas laws providing for nine-foot sheets on hotel beds were really intended to cause a greater consumption of cotton.

Pennsylvania newspapers and politicians are having the struggle of their lives trying to keep the Knox boom from collapsing before June 16. After that date it will be quietly laid away for some more propitious time.

When the Democrats of the Eighteenth district couldn't find anyone else to accept the nomination for congress they named J. J. Whitacre of Canton and dignified the farce by calling it "nominated by acclamation."

We now have a new currency law and the new currency will be in circulation when needed. However, it will be just as hard to get and as easy to spend as the more familiar bank notes and coins.

Possibly the Sebring ball team considered the weather too cool for a game here Wednesday. Had they come Salem would have tried to make it hot enough for them.

But two weeks remain for filling the Taft bandwagon to overflowing, and the present indications are that it will be crowded several days before the convention.

If the Rev. Billy Sunday can really prove his assertion that most preachers are "fudge-eating mollycoddles" he will succeed in interesting the candy manufacturers.

Seventy carloads of strawberries were shipped from a single town in Delaware a few days ago. Columbiana must not allow that story to go unchallenged.

This, remember, is the month of brides, and this year, also remember, is leap year.

DEVELOPMENT OF REAPING MACHINES

"This Romance of the Reaper is a true fairy tale of American life—the story of the magicians who have taught the civilized world to gather in its harvests by machinery." These are the opening words of a history of a reaper, written by Herbert N. Casson, and published by Doubleday, Page & Co. It tells the romantic story of reaping from the day when the tiny hand sickle made the cost of every bushel of wheat three hours of labor, down to the present time of the self-binding harvester, when the cost of wheat per bushel is only ten minutes' labor. Without the reaper, it would require half of the men of the country to produce the bread annually consumed.

Cyrus Hall McCormick completed a practical reaper in 1831 in Virginia, though the first reaper patent was granted in 1833 to Obed Hussey. McCormick's machine reaped six acres in less than half a day, but the inventor was jeered at by the skeptics. The history of the early days of the reaper is one of the struggles of the young inventor to improve his invention and place it before the unbelieving public. Not a reaper was sold until 1841. In 1844 the number had reached 50.

But the west was the natural home of the reaper—the prairies with their few laborers and vast level extents. McCormick went there, studied the needs of the country, then went to Brockport, N. Y., and found men and money to build a hundred reapers. In these two years he sold 240 reapers. Then McCormick built a factory of his own in Chicago. Henceforth success was assured. He was selling a thousand reapers a year. The reaper was becoming famous throughout the world. By 1859, 50,000 reapers were in use in this country. The McCormick factory today makes one-third of the harvesters of the world.

Of no less interest is the story of the evolution of the self-binder from the primitive reaper. In the 50's two brothers named Marsh of Illinois added to the reaper a platform on which they could stand and bind the grain as it was carried to them. In 1870 Wm. Deering took over the Marsh patent. Deering developed the first automatic twine-binder, and became "the King of the Harvesters."

Speaking of the men who brought the harvesting machine to perfection, Casson says: "They have made life easier and nobler for untold myriads of people."

How from the numerous passing competitors in the harvester business a combination was formed is related in this volume. The four leading companies were merged, into the International Harvester Co., with immense resources and facilities.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivaled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Important to Mail Subscribers

New Ruling of Postmaster General Requires Payment in Advance.

The postmaster general has just issued an order which, in effect, compels the publishers of papers to stop a subscriber's paper, when the time for which it was paid has expired. Heretofore most publishers have continued to send the paper after the expiration of the time paid for, unless expressly ordered not to do so by the subscriber, and if the subscriber accepted it from the postoffice he was held liable for payment, as his acceptance of delivery was considered as an implied agreement to take it.

Under the new ruling the postmaster is not allowed to deliver papers to subscribers by mail, who have not expressly ordered their papers renewed, and the date printed upon the address label, must show that the subscriber is not in arrears, or the paper will not be delivered, unless the publisher affixes a one cent stamp to each delinquent copy.

The order went into effect on January 1, 1908, and we urge all who are now in arrears to remit as soon as possible.

ALL SUBSCRIBERS ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT PAYMENT IN THE FUTURE MUST BE MADE IN ADVANCE.

The department has ordered that a publisher, who fails to comply with the order, will forfeit the second class postal privilege for his paper.

BRAZILIAN BALM kills the tough grip germ. In 27 years it has never lost a case; never let it run into pneumonia; nor left a grip-wreck behind. It is a world record.. Beware of quinine, morphine, (or opium in any form), whisky, bromides, mercury, for they kill no germs, whether in tablets or prescriptions. They are dangerous and often fatal in grip. Every case of pneumonia; every death; every grip-wreck, has followed the use of such pernicious drugs. Take BRAZILIAN BALM and take it freely.. The tiny doses—all—sufficient in croup, cougs, colds and ordinary fevers—are too small and slow in battling with the grip germ. Get the 50c or $1.00 bottle and take HALF A TEASPOONFUL in hot water every THREE HOURS; and be sure to follow up the treatment for two weeks after you think you are well, to annihilate the last remaining germ in lungs, kidneys and other organ and prevent the evil after effects.

About 25 out-of-town guests were present, including a few from this city. SUFFERS SEVERELY FROM BITE OF A DOG

Jacob Gross, a well-known farmer of near North Georgetown, is suffering intense pain as the result of being bitten by a dog several days ago. On Sunday, May 24, he was bitten by a neighbor's dog. The wound seemingly healed, and at first it was thought that there would be no serious results.

After a week had elapsed, however, the wound became very painful and Mr. Gross's jaws began to swell, with indications that the bite had left poison in his system. His condition became so alarming that he consulted a physician, and it is now thought with proper treatment no further serious results will follow.

Broadway Theater Packed Last Night.

Errors Corrected.

In an account of the mayor's annual budget, printed in The News Wednesday, it was stated that the safety board estimate was cut down to $1,500. The estimate was cut down $1,500, which leaves several thousand dollars to meet the estimated expenses of the safety board.

The statement that Patrolmen Galladine, Thompson and Crawford had been recommended by the mayor for an increase in salary was an error. The recommendation was made by the safety board, but as the increase was not included in the mayor's budget, it canont be made, for it is impossible to increase the budget after it has been submitted.

Erecting New Houses.

LATE AFTERNOON BRIEFS BY WIRE

Captain Dreyfus Shot.

Paris, June 4.—While entering the Pantheon today, former Captain Alfred Dreyfus was shot twice in the left arm by M. Greegori, military editor of Malois, a violent anti-Dreyfus newspaper. Dreyfus was by the side of President Fallieres, and it was at first thought the shots were intended for the president.

American Ambassador White was but a few steps from Dreyfus when the shots were fired.

Dreyfus was not seriously wounded.

New Currency Law N. G.?

Washington, June 4.—After being jammed through the house by a special rule and through the senate by aid of night session to defeat the fillibuster against it, a fatal defect has been discovered in the Aldrich-Vreeland emergency currency law. The treasury officials declare that not one dollar of the $500,000,000 emergency currency authorized will ever be issued. This arises from the fact that there is nothing in the law declaring house certificates illegal or are they taxed. If the theory of the treasury department is correct, the whole purpose of congress to provide means to guard against the money panic has failed.

PETER'S PENCE TO BE TAKEN SUNDAY

When Peter's Pence, the annual offering to the pope, is collected in the Cleveland diocese on Pentecost Sunday, June 7, one of the last wishes of the late Rt. Rev. Ignatius Horstmann will be fulfilled.

Children in each of the parochial schools will each be asked to give one penny. Administrator F. M. Boff, in his announcement to the parish diocese, calling attention to the diocesan statute with reference to the annual collection, says:

"It was the intention of the Rt. Rev. bishop to call also upon the children of our parochial schools for their contributions and to ask each child to give one penny for that purpose. I now give expression to that intention, and ask the directors of the parochial schools to act in accordance with it."

Peter's Pence is one of the oldest taxes of the church. It is found in early ecclesiastical history, and has always gone to the pope. Originally it paid only for the expenses of his household, but now it is used to pay for the government of the church at Rome and for the missions. By diocesan statute the collection is taken always on Pentecost Sunday.

POSTMASTERS GET SALARY INCREASE

Youngstown, June 4.—Congressman Kennedy is in receipt of notice from the postoffice department to the effect that in the recent readjustment of salaries of postmasters throughout the country the following increases were made in the Eighteenth district:

Alliance, from $2,800 to $3,000.
Columbiana, from $1,600 to $1,700.
East Palestine, from $1,800 to $1,900.
Lowellville, from $1,200 to $1,300.
Massillon, from $2,700 to $2,800.
Navarre, from $1,000 to $1,100.
Salineville, from $1,400 to $1,500.
Sebring, from $1,900 to $2,000.
Struthers, from $1,400 to $1,500.

Developed Remarkable Ability.

That Miss Leah Shane, a former Salem girl, now of Canton, has an abundance of histrionic talent was amply demonstrated Tuesday evening by the role she assumed in the production of "The Girls of '76." The performance was given at the Grand opera house of Canton by the girls of the Alice Danner Jones academy.

Concerning the production the Canton Repository has the following to say:

"Honors fell chiefly on the Misses Leah Shane and Louise Mattice, who carried the heavy parts of the story, and carried them most admirably. As members of the English Fusileers, dressed in striking attire of the Brittish soldier, with brilliant red coat, and with dangling sword at their side, they were at their best. They assumed well the voices of men, and in their actions made perfect the disguise."

In five years Ohio's fire loss on barns has increased from $513,905 a year to $1,037,005, or a little more than doubled. The loss on barn buildings is 37 per cent greater, while the loss on their contents has been multiplied by three.

VETERAHS' FARE MAY BE PAID BY GOVERNMENT

A movement has been started to have the United States government pay the railroad fare of Civil war veterans on the occasion of their grand encampments. Railroads, of course, favor the plan, and it is said that the old soldiers are doing quiet work among political leaders to bring this about.

This year the veterans have tried hard to get a rate of a cent a mile for the encampment at Toledo. The Central Passenger association has steadfastly refused to make such a concession. The best the encampment could draw was the fare and a half, the same as the National Educational association or other big conventions in this territory.

The railroads would gladly enough grant the soldiers better rates than other people, but it cannot be done consistently under the 2-cent-a-mile regime. Before the various states legislated on the rate of fare the soldiers did get a cent a mile. To grant that rate now would establish a precedent that passenger representatives say would be difficult to circumvent in the future, not only as to the G. A. R. encampments, national and state, but as to other big gatherings that clamor for as big a concession.

"Besides, railroads figure they are unable to carry delegates to any convention as cheap as a cent a mile," said a passenger official recently. "Under the circumstances, considering the fight made by all the states and the federal officials, the government surely ought to step up and pay the fare of the battle-scarred warriors. It surely is not in a position to ask us to grant them special favors. There are a few of the veterans left, and why not have the government show them all the kindness possible."

PAYMENTS ARE ILLEGAL

that checks shall be signed by the president and at least two members of the board, and attested by the secretary or clerk. In no case does the name of either the president or any member of the board appear on a check, though each check is attested by the secretary. This irregularity has been remedied.

The sinking fund commission should meet at least once a month, suggests the examiner, for the consideration of maturing debts, and for keeping an accurate record of maturing bonds or coupons. That all bonds should be made to mature in March or September is another suggestion.

The validity of several appropriating ordinances is questioned because of possible irregularity in their publication. Appropriations have been made in the interim between the regular semi-annual appropriations of January and July. These appropriations are illegal, and no law would legalize the payment of an expense from the general levy, except it be appropriated at the regular period provided by law.

The total taxes collected during the period, including Dow and cigarette taxes, amounted to $90,070.00. The tax valuation for 1907 was $2,935,040, about $30,000 higher than the previous year.

The report touches on the city lighting, the water controversy, which, he says, "has entailed much controversy, litigation and expense," and a few minor matters.

CURES COUGHS AND COLDS

Hyomei Gives Relief in Ten Minutes—Cures Over Night.

Everybody knows, or ought to know, that Hyomei is recognized among scientists as the specific for catarrh, asthma, bronchitis and hay fever, but there are a great many people who do not know that Hyomei will cure a cough or a cold in less than 24 hours.

But everyone should know that the soothing, balmy and antiseptic air of Hyomei when breathed over the raw and inflamed membrane of the nose nose and throat will instantly allay the inflammation, and will effect a prompt cure.

Complete Hyomei outfit, including inhaler, costs only $1.00 at Bolger & French's and M. S. Hawkins's. Extra bottles, if afterward needed, will cost but 50 cents.

Joseph M. Harbaugh, Heldredge, Neb., writes: "I have used your Hyomei in my family for two years or more, and find it one of the best remedies we ever used for a cold or sore throat. We find that it gives quick relief in cases of catarrh."

CHILDREN HUNGRY IN N. Y. SCHOOLS

TOTS FAINT WHILE RECITING

Sent to School Without Food for 48 Hours—Investigation Discloses Pitiable Plight of Children —Relief to Come.

New York, June 4—Emergency measures for the relief of hundreds of pupils in East Side schools who have been found to be suffering from lack of food have been adopted by the committee of East Side school board members, organized as a result of the serious conditions which the reports of school principals in the section revealed.

At a conference late Wednesday the committee decided to arrange for the speedy opening of two kitchens on the lower East Side at which the hungry children may be fed. While the funds for the support of these kitchens have been supplied only in part, the public has been so stirred by the disclosures of the pitiable plight of children fainting at their desks from want of sufficient nourishment that the committee anticipates no trouble in obtaining by subscription all the money needed for the purpose.

That the reports already made public have hardly painted conditions black enough was the statement made by Isadore M. Levy, chairman of the third school district committee.

"An investigation," said Mr. Levy, "has shown that many of the destitute families have sent their little tots to school without having given them food for 48 hours. To my personal knowledge several children have fainted while they were reciting in their class rooms."

Destitution has visited hundreds of East Side families as the result of the business depression. Not only have the educational authorities taken up the matter, but various charitable societies have begun active work for alleviating the distress. Among these are the Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor and the United Hebrew Charities.

The teachers and principals organization, perfected Wednesday, is to be called the "Children's Relief society," and it made announcement that Thursday the hungry children in many of the lower East Side schools will receive tickets entitling them to a substantial luncheon, consisting of soup, an egg, plenty of rolls and butter, crackers and sterilized milk.

ENDS LIFE ON 70TH BIRTHDAY

A brief essay was found. It read: "Fit only for rest—Threescore and ten—this is the scriptural statue of limitations. After that active work for man ceases, his time on earth has expired. If you shrink at the thought of night, and the late home-coming from the banquet, and the lights and laughter; if you fear to awaken those who are sleeping at home, I only need to remind you that there is no need for you to tiptoe, for theirs is the sleep from which there is no awakening. So you need only reply, 'I shall be happy to join you in that everlasting sleep, for I am 70—threescore and ten—and I am fit only for the chimney corner, my pipe and my book and rest.'

"And when you, in your turn, shall reach pier No. 70, may you board your waiting ship in reconciled state and lay your course toward the sinking sun. Good night."

Liquor Firm Fined.

Columbus, O., June 4.—Fines aggregating $2,000 and 60 day jail sentences were imposed on Joshua Lowes & Son, liquor rectifiers of Steubenville, in United States court Wednesday on a charge of filling liquor casks with spirits and selling them without destroying the revenue stamps. The jail sentences were remitted.

"I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words. For years I suffered with the worst forms of female complaints, continually doctoring and spending lots of money for medicine without help. I wrote you for advice, followed it as directed, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has restored me to perfect health. Had it not been for you I should have been in my grave to-day. I wish every suffering woman would try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Kneeling in Prayer When Stricken.

New York, June 3.—On his return from Paris Tuesday Theodore P. Shonts declared that the reports that the death of his son-in-law, Duke De Chaulnes, was due to indulgence in opiates were infamous libels. Mr Shonts said that the duke's death was caused by heart disease and not by the use of drugs. "The duke and my daughter were kneeling at their bed side in prayer," said Mr. Shonts "when the stroke came that carried him off before medical aid could be summoned."

Beware of Ointment for Catarrh That Contain Mercury,

No Humbug.

No humbug claims have to be made for Foley's Honey and Tar, the well-known remedy for coughs, colds and lung troubles. Why then risk taking some unknown preparation when Foley's Honey and Tar costs you no more and is safe and sure. Bolger & French.

YOUNG WOMEN ARE INJURED IN BLAZE

SUPERINTENDENT SAVES GIRL

Thousands of Pounds of Dynamite Fail to Go Off in Fire—Superintendent Rushes Into Flames to Carry Girl to Safety.

Amherst, O., June 4.—Three young women were seriously burned and several others painfully scorched near here Wednesday by a fire at the plant of the American Dynilite Co. A vat of chemicals in the loading room ignited from coming in contact with some metal.

Miss Minerva Barkley, age 24, was probably fatally burned before she could be rescued by Supt. Allyn, whose heroic work prevented her instant death. Mrs. Elizabeth Haas was burned about the face and ears, and her hair was burned off. Miss Rosalia Downs, age 20, received a sprained ankle by leaping from a window.

When the fire occurred about a dozen persons, mostly girls, were working in the plant. Supt. Allyn was also in the room conducting the work of loading torpedoes with dynilite, a new explosive which the firm produces.

The exact cause of the explosion has not been determined. Two tons of the explosive were stored in the building, but according to officials of the company it will not explode unless touched off with an electric spark. The fire tends to prove this claim as no explosion occurred.

Edith Keating was the only person in the building to escape even slight injuries. Eliza Lee, age 16, of Amherst was packing a torpedo with the explosive and had just placed a cap on the tube which contained 75 pounds of dynilite. A flame suddenly shot up from the vat in which the dynilite is stored.

Trap Shooters Tournament Opened.

Columbus, O., June 4.—The Ohio State Trap Shooters' tournament opened Wednesday and 14 squads entered in the program of events, all but six shooting through. In the doubles, Lou Fisher broke all but on target, Rolla O. Heikes and J. Garrett were next with 18, and eight others broke 17 each. High professional honors were won by Rolla O. Heikes on 183. It was a pretty race between him and J. R. Taylor, who finished second with 182. Then came J. M. Hawkins, with a difference of only one target between him and Taylor. Fred Gilbert and H. D. Freeman tied for fourth place on 179. John Garret scored 178. First among the amateurs was George Volk with 175. D. M. Anderson was close after him with 174. W. R. Chamberlain got third with 173. D. Upson and A. W. Kirby tied for fourth place on 172. J. B. Cromley scored 169 and Frank Foltz 168. The shooting was of a high grade, the high man averaging 97 per cent.

ALL TIRED OUT

Tired all the time.

Weary and worn out day and night;

Back aches; side aches,

All on account of the kidneys.

Must help them at their work.

A Salem citizen shows you how:

Mrs. Anthony Horner, living at 125 West Dry street, Salem, O., says: "My husband, who has been in the employ of the Pittsburg & Ft. Wayne railroad for many years, suffered from backache and other symptoms of kidney complaint for a long time. The pains in his back were so severe at times that he could hardly straighten up after stooping. Whenever he caught cold it settled in his kidneys and greatly aggravated the trouble. He felt weak and tired out and would often get up in the morning as tired as when he went to bed. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills recommended in our papers he procured a box from Bolger & French's drug store. After taking one box the pains in the back and the tired feeling entirely disappeared. He is now in good health, so can recommend this valuable remedy."

NEW ERA WOULD DAWN

With the Enactment of National Law to Govern Corporations.

ORDER, STABILITY, PROSPERITY

Lack of Control by Federal Power of Corporations Doing an Interstate Business a Glaring Weakness. Freak Legislation Against Corporations by Many States.

Columbus, O.—(Special.)—Ohio business men to a great extent are much interested in the proposed enactment of a national law to govern the corporate organization of all companies doing an interstate business. In nothing is the sagacity of President Roosevelt of seizing upon public questions of great strategic importance more manifest than in his earnest advocacy of the enactment of a Federal statue to govern the incorporation of combinations of capital doing an interstate business.

At present there is of course no national corporation law, and thus there are 46 different codes of laws for the incorporation and regulation of business corporations, each state having its own laws on this subject and all of them greatly at variance. In some states, as in Ohio, a company can be incorporated for the performing of but one general purpose, while in other states the laws are so liberal in regard to the incorporation of companies that a charter will be issued for the performing of a multitude of purposes, not one of which may be related to the other.

So long as these companies do not violate the Federal statutes in regard to combinations in restraint of trade, the giving or taking of rebates, etc., they are answerable so far as their charter is concerned only to the state by which it is issued. They may be doing a business which reaches every state in the Union, but the Federal laws are powerless unless, as said, they violate some of the Federal anti-trust laws, and then they can only be fined, as the general government has no authority to oust them from their corporate existence.

President Roosevelt has long seen this weakness in the lack of control by the Federal power of these corporations which transact an interstate business. Almost since he first began to speak on public questions he has favored a national incorporation law, and the taking over by the general government of the right to bring these combinations of capital into corporate existence. In his most forceable style he brought this important subject to the attention of the congress in his message of April 27, 1908. The president in this message said that his personal belief is that ultimately we shall have to adopt a national incorporation law, even if such a step is found impossible of carrying into effect at the present time. The interstate commerce commission legislation, he said, has worked admirably, and has benefited the public and the honestly managed and wisely conducted railroads as well.

The president further states that it is clear that the principles employed to remedy the great evils in the business world have worked well and may now be employed to correct the evils that further commercial growth has brought so prominently to the surface. He asserts that it is clear that unless a national incorporation law can forthwith be enacted, some body or bodies in the executive service should be given power to pass upon any combination or agreement in relation to interstate commerce, and every such combination or agreement not thus approved should be treated as in violation of law and be prosecuted accordingly. He asserted that the issuance of the securities of any combination doing an interstate business should be under the supervisions of the national government.

One of the great captains of industry of the country, in a statement made before the industrial commission in 1899, said that in his opinion the legislation which would most improve the condition of the country would be in the direction of national or Federal incorporation. He declared that if such corporations should be made possible under such fair restrictions and provisions as should rightfully attach to them, any branch of business could be freely entered upon and the talk of monopoly would be gone forever.

The present system of state corporations, almost as varied in its provisions as the number of states, is vexatious alike to the business community and to the authorities of the several states. The Federal law need not take away from the states the right of taxation or police regulation, but it would make it possible for business organizations to know the general terms on which they could conduct their business in the country at large. The lack of uniformity in the laws of the various states, as affecting business corporations, is one of the most vexatious features attending the business life of any of the great corporations of the country today, and all of them would heartily welcome the enactment of a federal corporation law.

In some states it is possible to incorporate a company for practically any purpose, and not incur thereby any responsibility for the conduct of its business. The most plain and barefaced swindle may be incorporated if the promoters have the filing fee, and it will go out with the sanction of the state, which practically is aiding and abetting the commission of crime.

With a national incorporation law, it will not be believed for a moment that the congress of the United States or the executive officers of the government would ever prostitute themselves to the enactment of such loose incorporation laws as are found in many of the states. No sane business man believes that there will ever again in the Federal government be too much laxity in the control and management of corporations.

It may seem paradoxical, but it is true, that the corporations will escape severe and probably unfair future control by insisting upon a thorough and sensible present control of their corporate acts and functions. At the present time there is much freak legislation against corporations by many states, and, while this will not last, it will bring with it and leave behind it disorder and loss.

What a wonderful advantage would result if the legitimate businesses of the country everywhere were controlled by and subject to one legislative body enacting stringent and effective, but not transient and contradictory incorporation laws, instead of having this work done by the legislatures of 46 states. To many business men it seems as if a new era in business would dawn if the federal government could thus control corporations by stable and uniform laws that will encourage and protect all legitimate industries, and thus force the promoter to quit, the swindler to withdraw or go to jail, and give some measure of protection to the poor deluded investor who sees in an advertisement or prospectus the competence which he fears he will not be able to secure by daily toil.

It is the Federal government that the dishonest promoter fears and not the state governments. The enactment of Federal laws for the incorporation and regulation of monopolistic and competitive corporations would serve as models for the states and the attempt to formulate and enact such laws would develop an educational discussion of great value.

Business men believe it is wiser and safer for the Federal government to permit no corporation to engage in interstate commerce which is not incorporated under federal laws. In its attempt to control interstate commerce, if the Federal government should merely license the state corporations, a double jurisdiction would arise which would bring about conflict between federal and state governments and would aggravate rather than soften the jealousy between the two jurisdictions.

The first Federal incorporation law should be made simple, making the first step short but firm between the idea of state and that of national incorporation. Wisdom and experience will suggest in the course of time the additions to the law which may be found necessary. There should be one law for the incorporation of monopolies and another for the incorporation of competitive businesses, and each law should be administered by a coordinate branch of the executive government. The incorporation and regulatory laws should identify all transactions by their generic character, not by their size, the amount of capital employed or the number of persons associated in making the transaction or the form of its organization.

One of the great business bodies of the country declared recently in a series of resolutions that one of the most important factors for the stability and prosperity of business affairs in the country in the future is the federal corporation of all interstate commerce corporations. As a result, corporations of a public and semi-public character, the stocks of which are listed on the exchanges for sale, will be so justly conducted that workmen and citizens of small means and the people generally will find investments in them at least as safe and profitable as the individual enterprises which are being superseded by such corporations. If the congress should go no further, it was the judgment of this association that all railroad and other transportation companies engaged in interstate commerce should be compelled to incorporate under federal laws.

MOTTOLESS COINS ARE ALREADY QUITE RARE

Have you any ten or twenty dollar gold pieces of the original issue without the motto, "In God We Trust?" If you have save them. They are already worth almost three times their face value, it is said.

Since congress has decided to restore the motto on these coins, coin collectors, realizing that the few will soon be or are already a valuable rarity, are clamoring for them. Collectors have practically been besieging the banks lately to get these coins, and it is stated that but few are in circulation in this city.

The original issues of the mottoless $20 gold pieces was of such an unusual character, the eagles being so fat that the coins could not be stacked, that an almost immediate effort was made to get them back, following the correction of the dies. The coins put out afterward stack all right, but now that the motto is to be restored it is believed that all such gold pieces will eventually be withdrawn from circulation.

Raid on Gamblers.

New York, June 4.—A spectacular raid was made late Wednesday night on two houses on West Forty-seventh street, where they suspected gambling operations were going on by a large force of police who dashed up in automobiles and took 58 prisoners. The raids were made while the streets in this section, the heart of the theater district, were crowded and the actions of the 200 or more officers soon attracted a great throng.

$25,000,000 RAIL ORDER

BAR IRON PRICE REDUCED, FOLLOWING DROP IN STEEL.

Trade Stimulation is Now Looked for—Dealers and Manufacturers Are Optimistic.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 4.—It is said here Wednesday that the United States Steel corporation is negotiating with the Russian government for one of the largest steel rail contracts ever made.

According to the reports the steel company will provide rails for relaying practically the entire track of the Siberian railway and that probably more than 1,000,000 tons of 80 to 85 pound rails will be required for the purpose. The value of such a contract would be about $25,000,000.

A return of activity and prosperity in the iron and steel trade, the pivotal industry in American manufactures, is the practically certain outcome of the cut of $4 a ton in the price of bar steel announced Tuesday, in the opinion of many steel men. Forecasts differ only in the length of time allowed for the full resumption of trade.

An indication of the effect of the cut came Wednesday, when the bar iron manufacturers reduced the price of bar iron $3 a ton, leaving it $1 lower in price than bar steel.

THE WHITE HOUSE FURNITURE

Wife of Ex-President Has a Dealer Who Watches Out for It.

Princeton, N. J., June 4.—Mrs Cleveland possesses the most valuable collection of mahogany furniture to be found on this continent. It is valuable not only because of beauty, shape and carving, but from association.

Mrs. Cleveland has an agent in Washington, where the handsomest furniture in this country finds its way sooner or later, and he is commissioned to buy everything of worth from the historic standpoint.

Whenever anything is sold from the white house, this agent is sure to be on hand to get the best of the lot. In this way Mrs. Cleveland has kept together nearly all the odd things collected by the various presidents.

She has a grand old bedroom set of rosewood and mahogany, the first placed in the southwest chamber by Abigail Adams and used by all the first ladies of the land until Mrs. McKinley's time. Mrs. McKinley disliked anything somber. Her room was furnished in showy brass with drapings of rose-colored silk and her dresser and small articles were of white birch.

No other chamber was large enough to contain Abigail Adams' set, so it was sent to auction and now adorns the guest room of Cleveland's Princeton home. Tables, chairs, small articles of silver, glass and china once in use in the white house have been collected by Mrs. Cleveland with infinite pains.

MEAT ONLY FOR MILLIONAIRES

Secretary Wilson in a Statement Says High Price of Hay and Corn is the Cause.

Washington, June 4.—"If the price of meat keeps going up as it has been in the last few years it will only be a matter of time when none but the rich people of America can afford to eat it."

This statement was made by Secretary Wilson of the department of agriculture.

"Think of it," said the secretary, "corn at 76 and 78 cents. How can a farmer afford to raise cattle with corn at that price? How can a farmer afford to feed hay to cattle at the price that he can obtain for it on the market? Why should a farmer continue to raise cattle with the little profit in his work, as there necessarily must be when we look at the prices of fodder. Beef prices will soon be so high that people like us will be unable to get it to eat at all."

UNITARIAN.

Real Righteousness.

We might with wisdom write this word in a new way to express its truer significance, namely, "Right-use-ness." It is simply the right use of the faculties which God has given to each one of us. It is the unfolding and development of the powers inherent in the human soul. It is not as was once popularly supposed, the restraint and denial of one's forces. That man is truly righteous, whatever may be the form of his faith, who makes right use of himself and the faculties with which he has been endowed.

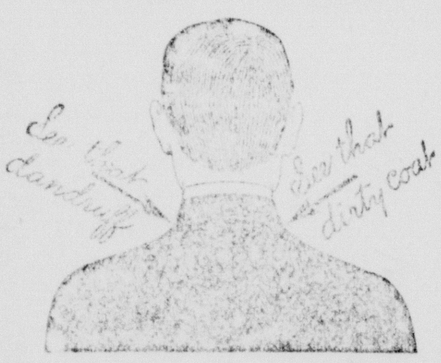
A Filthy Condition



Many a man, otherwise scrupulously clean, is dandruff dirty. The small persistent germs of dandruff working all day as well as night are constantly throwing off the small white dandruff scales, which falling on the shoulders of a coat, gives it a filthy appearance, which is repulsive to the friends of the victim.

Many men allow this condition to exist because they believe there is no cure far dandruff; they have tried various so-called cures with unsatistory results and naturally condemn all.

The have never heard that so far back as 20 years ago Dr. Giroux, the foremost dermatologist of France discovered and compounded a formula that since that time has cured thousands upon thousands of the most chronic cases of dandruff in anywhere from three days to two weeks.

This famous prescription of Dr. Giroux's is called Parisian Sage, and is now put up in America, but only by the Giroux Mfg. Co. of Buffalo, N. Y. It is for sale in Salem by Bolger & French, who guarantee it to cure dandruff in two weeks or money back.

Parisian Sage is guaranteed to do more; it will make short thin hair grow long, lustrous and luxuriant; it will stop hair from falling out; it will cure all diseases of the scalp. Bolger & French guarantee it—every bottle of it—The price is only 50 cents, and if you want to stop the filthy dandruff flakes from lodging on your coat and disgusting your friends, get a bottle at once.
